

2018 FASCA Princeton Training Camp

Introduction and Application

*Experience culture, seek identity, expand ability, and develop your own leadership
Join FASCA! You will have an unforgettable growth this year !*

The training camp contains the two-day learning and training and a whole-year empowerment program. FASCA Princeton has specially invited outstanding faculty members in New Jersey regions to constitute the tour lectures for both lively and vivid experience activities; after training, student is eligible to become member of the Formosa Association of Student Cultural Ambassadors, referred to as FASCA, in participation of the "Follow-up Empowerment Program." Through the service and learning of Taiwan culture and overseas Chinese activities, the students have been cultivated and become a person possessing with strong culture senses and powerful leadership.

Leave your comfort zone and choose a different summer. In a period of two days of solid training, you will learn diverse skills, i.e. leadership, teamwork, community service, cultural experience and administrative practice. You will not only have a macroscopic view, but also have a full play of your personal creativity. Your potential will be well explored.

When student service hours are accumulated more than 100 hours, we will assist you in the application for the President's Volunteer Service Award, giving you a broader road to your future studies.
